

UBC Library | LIBRARY STUDENT ADVISORY COMMITTEE MEETING MINUTES

28 March 2017, 5:00-6:30pm

IKBLC 256– Chilcotin Room

Present: Simon Robins ; Irene Lin; Nafeel Ahmed; Leah Singer; Karen Ng, Damon Dhillon; Lisa Chang, Laura Super; Jennifer Phi; Kaitlyn Tissington Turner
Regrets: Daniela Medrano, Betty Han, Mina Chen; Leah Singer
Chairs: Alex Kuskowski, Sheryl Adam		Guest Presenter: Neil Armitage ; Melody Burton
Agenda Item	Summary	Action Item
1. Welcome & Introductions	- Introductions ; Melody Burton., Interim University Librarian, to say a few words on the impact of LSAC; Answering student questions	FYI
2. Prof in Commons Expansion Project	- Discussion on Prof in Commons expansion project – how can they better reach students, get everyone involved - Student suggestions: Health walk; involve TAs, sessionals; Make it for credit ; involve students early; Short videos -	Neil Armitage to assess comments and incorporate feedback to project
3. Research for Library and Summon Activity	- Sheryl presented on standing desk research question “is it really healthier to work standing?” going through UBC’s library search system – Findings are inconclusive! - Summon activity – students asked for feedback on several questions - Should the default be to turn off Book Reviews? - Should Summon pull up Wikipedia definition? - Should there be an autofill on the Summon search on the first page?	Sheryl to use student comments in working group based around making changes in Summon
4. Discussion	- Sharing favorite Library spaces for the group!	FYI
5. Wrap up	- Last Meeting of the Year! - Alex will email LSAC listserv next year to let everyone know to apply again - Small tokens of library appreciation and Certificates of Participation given out	FYI
Next meeting: Hope to see everyone in Fall 2017. Have a good summer ☺

If you would like to subscribe to the library newsletter please follow this link: <http://about.library.ubc.ca/news/subscribe/>