

A large group of people, including students and staff, are posing for a group photo in a room. They are arranged in several rows, some sitting on the floor and others standing. Many are smiling and making hand gestures. The room has a white wall and a ceiling with recessed lighting. The text "Effective Presentation Skills" is overlaid in large, bold, black letters across the center of the image.

Effective Presentation Skills

BOO Meeting #6
May 25th 2011

Just came to say HELLO!

Goodbye Jasmine and Jessa

We will miss you!

Student Success Workshop + Creating Campus Connections GOALS

- Learning the differences between high school and university in terms of what they can expect in their courses and from their professors, and in turn what the university and professors expect from them
 - Meet a professor, and ideally see them as approachable, demystifying the unapproachable professor stereotype
 - Students learn success strategies from other students

Student Success Workshop + Creating Campus Connections

Let's brainstorm!!!

- What are some effective ways of leading the session?
- What are good questions to ask the O-Prof?
 - How are you going to engage 1st year students? MUG/Group Leaders?
- What overall message do you want students to take away?

Effective Speakers

Here is an example of an engaging and effective public speaker:

(insert video clip)

Why are they so effective? What skills do you think make them effective?

Let's Practice

Effective Public Speaking is all about
CONFIDENCE, IMPULSIVITY and STORY TELLING.

We are going to give you a chance to practice these skills! Let's play some games!

Elements of Storytelling

- 1) Location
- 2) Characters
- 3) Conflict
- 4) The Stakes
- 5) Resolution

That's all folks!

Thank you for coming out to
BOO Meeting #6!

HAPPY SUMMER!

See you on June 22nd!
