

Planning Your Wiki Pages

Step 1: Define the purpose of your page(s).

Consider: Am I creating a single page on a topic? Will there be subpages associated with this page? Is this for a course? Is this documentation (like how-tos)?

Step 2: What will your collaborators need to know?

Consider: Will you need a separate page for orientation? Will you be using the discussion area? What kinds of contributions will your collaborators be making?
