

FIREtalks

Facilitated Interdisciplinary Research Exchange

INDIGENIZING THE ACADEMY

October 23, 2013 - 4 – 6 p.m.

Irving K. Barber Learning Centre

Rm. 256 - Chilcotin Boardroom

The Truth and Reconciliation Commission events in Vancouver support reconciliation between Aboriginal people and wider Canadian society. To continue the conversation, Xwi7xwa Library and the Research Commons at Koerner Library invite you to participate in the first FIREtalk of the 2013-2104 academic year.

How can the academy engage Aboriginal and Indigenous knowledge? What are some ways researchers at UBC - Indigenous and non-Indigenous - are using Indigenous methodologies and incorporating Indigenous knowledge? What challenges arise and how can we address them?

Be part of the discussion: Register at <http://bit.ly/23OctFt> or just stop by the FIREtalk!

FIREtalks: An interdisciplinary forum for graduate students, by graduate students. Find out more at: <http://koerner.library.ubc.ca/services/research-commons/fire-talks/>

