

The People in the Apology

Learning Together – Diving In

Look at the articles again for their language choices, particularly the words representing places and people. Review the articles again for the specific terms used to refer to “people”. Write in the circles below the groups you identified and a few points on their relationships between each other and to the system as a whole. Where could some of them overlap? What other circles or links could you add?

