Selective Release

Release the forum to selected groups.

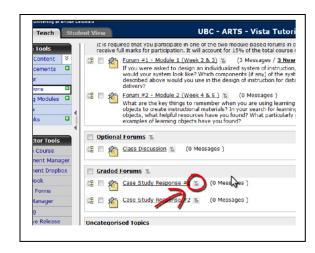

1. Make sure you are in the teach tab.

UBC -Course Tools Course tools are all of the content, organisational, and evaluation tools that you or another designer the course menu. You use these tools to create c learning activities. Section Instructors use these toontent and learning activities to Students. Stude tools to view content and perform learning activities. Announcements Calendar Discussions
Learning Modules Syllabus Designer Tools Web Links Designer tools allow you to build and customise the manage files and control the availability of content H) = Hidden To read information about getting started in the L System, click the Help link at the top of the scre Designer Tools File Manager To become familiar with the major areas of the Bla Learning System and how to navigate around then Grading Forms

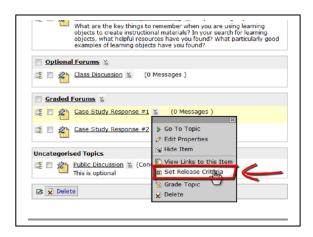

2. Click on "Discussions" under Course Tools.

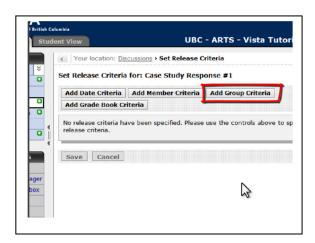

3. Click on the arrow to expand a drop down menu.

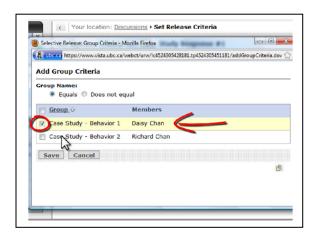

4. From the drop down menu, choose "Set Release Criteria".

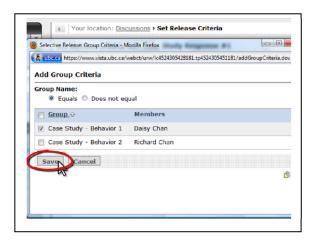

5. Click on "Add Group Criteria".

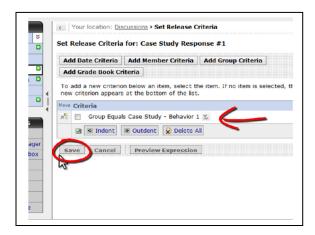

6. Check the box beside the group you want to release to.

7. Click "Save".

8. You will be directed to a new page. Check to see that the groups are correct. Then click "Save" again.

9. Notice that after the release criteria have been set, "conditional" is identified in brackets.

